Many thanks to Marjorie Ferra, Joanne Polito and others for providing information about Mauk cousins we've lost since the last reunion.

Kevin Allen Aul

Kevin Allen Aul, 46, of Punxsutawney passed away suddenly at UPMC Presbyterian Hospital in Pittsburgh. Kevin was born on July 16, 1971, to Kevin Leroy and Kathy Marlene (Brown) Aul. His parents survive and reside in Punxsutawney.

Kevin married Nichole Lynn Painter on May 1, 2010. She survives him and resides in Punxsutawney.

Kevin was a kind and gentle man with a huge sense of humor and a wonderful outlook on life, despite his nearly life-long battle with cancer, which was diagnosed when he was just 9 years old. Kevin never complained and persevered, enduring the many challenges he faced with a brave heart and an endearing attitude.

He enjoyed life, clowning around, and was never afraid to take a chance. Although Kevin had many interests and hobbies, his biggest love was his wife and family whom he adored and never put anything second to them. Kevin was a brave fighter who never gave up hope and lived life to the fullest enjoying every waking moment. He will certainly be missed by so many who loved him so dearly.

In addition to his parents, and his wife Nichole, Kevin is survived by two brothers, Randy Aul and his wife Michelle of Punxsutawney and Curtis Aul and his wife "Sis" of Punxsutawney. He is also survived by his four nieces, Jessica, Cassie, Chloe, and Maggie Aul; his two nephews, Dylan Aul and Brandon Weaver; and his three great-nieces, Dakota, Jayde, and Rylee; mother- and father-in-law, Diane and Ernie Painter. Kevin was preceded in death by his maternal grandparents, Donald V. Brown and Jane Toven; paternal grandparents, Merle and Gladys V. Aul; sister-in-law, Samantha Painter.

Friends will be received from 3-9 p.m. on Saturday, June 30, 2018 at Shumaker Funeral Home, Inc., Punxsutawney. A second viewing will be held at the Grace United Methodist Church in Punxsutawney on Sunday, July 1, 2018 from 1-3 p.m. followed by a funeral service at the church at 3 p.m. with Pastor Clint Phillips officiating. Kevin will be interred at Lakelawn Cemetery in Reynoldsville. In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made in Kevin's memory to the Grace United Methodist Church Bible School Fund. Online condolences may be made at www.shumakerfh.com.

Sara Olive (Kiehl) Harp

Published in the Punxsutawney Spirit on April 21, 2018:

Mrs. Sara Olive Harp, 92, of Summerville, passed away quietly at her home surrounded by her loving family on Thursday, April 19, 2018. Olive was born on Aug. 28, 1925, at her parents' home in Worthville. She is a daughter of the late Ralph David and Ida Merle (Mauk) Kiehl. She married Wayne Lee Harp on Jan. 27, 1948.

Wayne preceded Sara in death on April 13, 2012.

Olive was a kind and gentle woman who had a zest for life. She loved her family and enjoyed being a mother and wife. Olive liked flowers of all sorts, playing cards and watching the Steelers. She was also a huge Pirates fan. Olive and her husband Wayne enjoyed going to a myriad of different events together, and she was known for always saying, "That was the best program that I ever heard!"

Olive worked at the Brookville Glove Factory for over 20 years as a material handler and supplier and was a member of the Ohl United Methodist Church. Olive was loved by so many and will most certainly be sorely missed.

Olive is survived by her son, Larry Harp and wife June of Worthville; her daughters, Judy Kennedy of Summerville and LuAnn Hetrick and husband Ken of Columbus, Ohio; and her daughter-in-law, Bev Harp of Sanford, North Carolina. Olive is also survived by nine grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren. Her grandchildren are Jason Harp, Kelly Shaffer and husband Tom, Krista Dunbart and husband Tim, Travis Harp, Dan Kennedy and wife Mimi, Joshua and Andrew Harp, and Kayla and Stacia Hetrick.

In addition to her parents, Ralph and Ida Kiehl, and her husband, Wayne, Olive was preceded in death by her son, Randy Harp; her two brothers, Grant and Ray Kiehl; and her three sisters, Hazel Lewis, Florence Kerner and LaRue Barnett.

Friends will be received at the Ohl United Methodist Church in Ohl on Sunday, April 22, 2018 from 12:30 to 2 p.m. with a funeral service immediately following at 2 p.m. at the church, officiated by Pastor Linda Chambers. Funeral arrangements are entrusted to the Shumaker Funeral Home Inc. of Punxsutawney.

In lieu of flowers, donations in Mrs. Harp's memory can be made to the Ohl United Methodist Church, 3229 Heathville-Ohl Rd., Summerville, PA. Online condolences can be made at shumakerfhinc.com.

William E. "Bill" Hazlett

William (Bill) E. Hazlett, 83, of Johnston Township, entered eternal rest peacefully with his wife and daughters at his side on March 3, 2018, in his home, under the comforting care of hospice.

Bill was born on Oct. 20, 1934, in Punxsutawney, the son of the late Walter and Thelma (Milliron) Hazlett.

Bill was a veteran of the United States Army.. A corporal, US 7th Army, 55th Field Artillery 1957-1959, he was stationed in Frankfurt, Germany. Among the good things he can credit to his military service are the birth of his oldest daughter, lifelong friends and memories of his friendship with Elvis Presley, the king of rock 'n' roll. Bill retired from Wean United and Starr Manufacturing. He loved to spend time with his family, watching his grandchildren's many activities. He loved being outdoors, taking care of his land in Johnston Township, where he and his wife have lived for 57 years. Bill was a member of the Antique Tractor Club and loved to show his restored 1941 John Deere H.

Bill was a member of the North-Mar Christian Missionary Alliance church in Warren. He had served as usher for many years and was known as the "Candyman" because he was never without mints or lollipops in his pockets for the kids as well as adults.

Bill was a devoted husband and father. He was married on July 30, 1954, to Helen M. (Reed) Hazlett, and they have been married for 63 wonderful years and shared the love of three daughters, Helen Iannucci of Cleveland, Ohio, LuJean Yommer of Johnston Township and Valerie Hazlett of Mecca Township, and five grandchildren, Maria Iannucci, Denny Yommer, Angela Iannucci, Michael Palm and Matthew Palm. Bill is also survived by two brothers, Robert and Luke Hazlett of Howland.

Family and friends may call from 4 to 8 on Wednesday, March 7, 2018, at Carl W. Hall Funeral Home, 533 North Park Ave., Warren, OH 44481, and again an hour before the 11 a.m. funeral on Thursday, March 8, 2018, at North-Mar Christian Missionary Alliance Church, 3855 E. Market St., Warren, OH 44484.

Burial will take place privately in Johnston Twp Cemetery. Bill will be buried with full military honors. In lieu of flowers, Bill's daughters suggest that memorial contributions take the form of donations in Bill's name to Hospice of the Valley, 5000 E. Market St., Warren, OH 44484, or the Benevolent Fund at North Mar Church, 3855 E. Market St., Warren, OH 44484.

Ronald Eugene "Auger" Seger

Published in The Punxsutawney Spirit on Dec. 20, 2017

Ronald Eugene "Auger" Seger, 66, of Rossiter, passed away peacefully at home on Tuesday, Dec. 19, 2017.

He was born in Punxsutawney, a son of the late Dale "Frog" and LaVonne (Lynch) Seger. Mr. Seger was a United States Army Veteran having served in Germany during the Vietnam War.

On June 30, 1973, he married his sweetheart, Cindy Lynn Sutter. She survives and resides in Rossiter.

"Auger" retired from P&N Coal Company after working 34 years as a heavy equipment operator. He was a hardworking man and a great provider for his family. His family was everything to him, and he loved them above all else. He loved to spend time with them, laughing and joking; he especially enjoyed watching the Steelers football game surrounded by his wife, children and grandchildren.

He loved to spend hours in the garden and maintaining an immaculate yard. Auger always took great pride in pristine vehicles and could make a car shine like no other. Although his illness was tough, he was a fighter, and he always managed to joke and make light of the situation, as if to comfort those who surrounded him.

In addition to his wife, Cindy, he is survived by three children, Bethany Berringer and husband Michael of Rossiter, Kelly McDonald and husband David of Punxsutawney and Michael Seger and wife Danielle of Punxsutawney; eight grandchildren, Kyler Berringer, Raeann, Cheyenne, Shayleah and Rylan McDonald, Baylee, Kendal and Dysen Seger; and one great-grandson, Jaxson Sharp.

At Auger's request, there will be no public viewing or visitation. A private family service will be held. Interment will be at Union Hill Cemetery, Rossiter. Military honors will be accorded by the Rossiter American Legion. Memorial donations may be made to the Punxsutawney Area Hospital Cancer Center, where he received wonderful care and compassion. Online condolences may be made at www.shumakerfh.com.
